"The Lamb"

Shaw

Text: Blake, from "Songs of Innocence"

Rebecca Shrimpton, soloist

Little lamb, who made thee? Dost thou know who made thee? Gave thee life, and bade thee feed by the stream and o'er the mead; gave thee clothing of delight, softest clothing, woolly, bright; gave thee such a tender voice, making all the vales rejoice?

Little lamb, who made thee? Dost thou know who made thee? Little lamb, I'll tell thee; little lamb, I'll tell thee; He is called by thy name, for He calls himself a Lamb. He is meek and He is mild. He became a little child. I a child and thou a lamb, we are called by His name.

Little lamb, God bless thee! Little lamb, God bless thee!

"To My Little Son"

Price, text: Davis

Rebecca Shrimpton, soloist

In your face I sometimes see shadowings of the man to be and eager dream of what my son shall be, dream of what my son will be in twenty years and one.

When you are to manhood grown and all your manhood ways are known, then shall I wistful try to trace the child you once were in your face.

The Gospels

Luke 1:26-38

(New Revised Standard Version Bible Translation)

²⁶ In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, ²⁷ to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸ And he came to her and said, 'Greetings, favoured one! The Lord is with you.' ²⁹ But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.

³⁰ The angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favour with God. ³¹ And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. ³² He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. ³³ He will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.'

³⁴ Mary said to the angel, 'How can this be, since I am a virgin?' ³⁵ The angel said to her, 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. ³⁶ And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren. ³⁷ For nothing will be impossible with God.'

³⁸ Then Mary said, 'Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.' Then the angel departed from her.

The New Testament

Acts 1:12-14

(New Revised Standard Version Bible Translation)

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. ¹³ When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. ¹⁴ All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Message

Choir Anthem “Walk, While You Have the Light” text: John 35-36

Beebe

Walk, while you have the light, now that you see the light, now lest the darkness cometh upon you; for they that walketh in the darkness knoweth not where they goeth, for a little while walk, while you have the light, see, you can see the light, go, though the doom of darkness be on you.

Walk, while you have the light, and you’ll see that you have the light, and believe that the light will guide you forever. Walk, while you have the light.

Walk, while you have the light, now that you see the light, now lest the darkness cometh upon you; for they that walketh in the darkness knoweth not where they goeth, for a little while walk, while you have the light, see, you can see the light, go, though the doom of darkness be on you.

Walk, while you have the light, and you’ll see that you have the light, and believe that the light will guide you forever. Walk, while you have the light.

Closing Hymn “God of Grace and God of Glory” (printed in bulletin)

Blessing

Closing Song “May the Road Rise Up to Meet You” Lau

May the road rise up to meet you, may the wind be always at your back, may the shine warm upon your face, and the rain fall soft upon your fields.

And until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand. And until we meet again, may God hold you in His hand. Amen.

- Our Deacons this morning are Nancy Peterson and Liz Loomis.
- The First Parish Office will be closed until Thursday, May 12.

- Bible Study will next be held on the following date in May at 4pm on Zoom:

Thursday, May 26

There will be no Bible Study on Thursday, May 12 or 19

- Prayer and Meditation will next be offered on Zoom in May at 7pm:

- Our newest Spiritual Exploration has begun:

“These Things”: Considering Your Life Testament

Tuesdays: May 10, 24, 31; June 7 and 14 (additional weeks as needed)
7:00pm – 8:30pm on Zoom

Based on a spiritual exercise crafted by Jesuit priest and author Father Anthony de Mello, this unit will involve considering and sharing our responses and insights regarding a number of “these things” statements – for example: “These things I have loved in life:” and “These experiences I have cherished:” It promises to be a time of deep spiritual reflection, challenge, clarity and growth. After the first session, one or more “these things” prompts will be provided as “homework” in preparation for the following session.

Each session can be participated in on its own for those concerned about missing one or more evenings.

The homework prompts for this coming Tuesday’s session are:

“These Things I Have Cherished...”

“These Things I Have Outgrown...”

Remember:

1. Write as many responses as you can.

2. Avoid “self-editing”
 3. Let go of concerns over how “trivial” a response might be to you or others.
 4. Be as detailed as possible.
- Readers and Greeters are always needed, to volunteer speak to the Deacons, or you can also sign up online.

- Announcing a new Outreach and Service opportunity!

Each month the American Legion in Manchester collects items for Operation Troop Support, an organization that focuses efforts on helping our deployed troops as well as their loved ones back home. The Service & Outreach committee has agreed to help by collecting requested items.

Each month we will let you know what the items are and have a collection bin outside the Chapel Office door and in the Church for donations. This collection is in addition to the mission for The Grace Center and The Open Door (which is ongoing, see next page for those items) to give another opportunity to participate in hands on service and outreach.

The troop items requested for May are sunscreen, foot powder and deodorant; for June they are powdered drink mixes (Gatorade, iced tea, lemonade).

Book Group will next meet on Monday, May 30 at 6:30 PM at Lauren Gudonis' home, 56 Masconomo St. Manchester. We will be discussing "Wish You Were Here" by Jodi Picoult.

Diana O'Toole is perfectly on track. She will be married by thirty, done having kids by thirty-five, and move out to the New York City suburbs, all while climbing the professional ladder in the cutthroat art auction world. She's not engaged just yet, but she knows her boyfriend, Finn, a surgical resident, is about to propose on their romantic getaway to the Galápagos—days before her thirtieth birthday. Right on time.

But then a virus that felt worlds away has appeared in the city, and on the eve of their departure, Finn breaks the news: It's all hands on deck at the hospital. He has to stay behind. You should still go, he assures her, since it would be a shame for all of their nonrefundable trip to go to waste. And so, reluctantly, she goes.

Almost immediately, Diana's dream vacation goes awry. The whole island is now under quarantine, and she is stranded until the borders reopen. Completely isolated, she must venture beyond her comfort zone. Slowly, she carves out a connection with a local family when a teenager with a secret opens up to Diana, despite her father's suspicion of outsiders.

Diana finds herself examining her relationships, her choices, and herself—and wondering if when she goes home, she too will have evolved into someone completely different. goodreads

God Our Author and Creator

Carl P. Daw, Jr., 1985

Gen. 1:1-2:3; Acts 17:22-31; Rom. 12:2; John 3:16-17

Unison

1 God our Au - thor and Cre - a - tor, in whose life we find our own,
2 Like those first a - pos-tles, Sav-ior, give us strength to love and serve:
3 Keep us faith-ful, Ho-ly Spir-it, help us bear the mes-sage true, make our dai - ly wit - ness great-er, by our lives make your love known.

when our faint-ing spir - its wa-ver, fire our hearts and steel our nerve.
that at last all lands may hear it: "God is love; Christ died for you."

Help us show how love em-brac-es those whom fear and greed down-trod;
Teach us wis - dom and com-pas-sion: bid our rest - less thoughts be still;
Join our lives in might-y cho-rus till we come from ev - ery place, in all yearn-ing hearts and fac - es let us see a child of God.

by your guid-ance help us fash-ion lives con-formed un - to your will.
with all those who went be - fore us, to the full - ness of God's grace.

In 1985, a hymn competition was held to commemorate the centennial of the Women's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention. This winning text by Carl P. Daw, Jr., fulfilled the guideline that the hymn address mission in the context of daily life.
